Golf

Off to a flying start, the freshman golfers edged both College of San Mateo and Menlo College in close matches on the Stanford course. This was followed by more decisive wins over Robert Louis Stevenson High School and Cubberly High School. Kim Corbin, Jeff Johnson and Jim Black were impressive in these victories.

Coach Bud Finger (right) once again had several outstanding golfers under his direction.

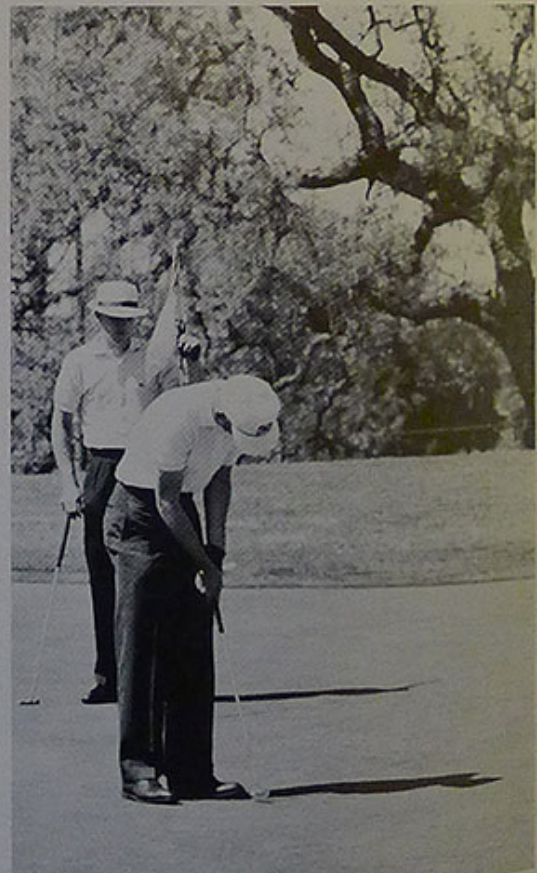

With the fairway stretching ahead, Bill Farish tees off on the famous Stanford course, one of the toughest in the West.

Golf

The Indian golfers opened the season in impressive fashion, ready to take their perennial position as a power in collegiate golfing circles. Early victories were notched over the Peninsula Golf & Country Club, San Francisco State, the Alumni and the Sunnyside Golf & Country Club. In this fourth match Kent Winton captured medalist honors by firing a three under par 68.
